AELFE's 25th anniversary at the 16th annual international conference

25 years of AELFE as an association will be celebrated in the upcoming AELFE conference LSP in Multi-disciplinary Contexts of Teaching and Research, hosted by Universidad de Extremadura, Mérida, Spain, on 15 & 16 June 2017. Registration is still open. The conference website: <http://www.aelfe.org/aelfe2017/>

Ibérica* – AELFE's multilingual research journal

Ibérica 33 (Spring 2017) has recently been uploaded to our AELFE website. You can access its contents at <http://www.aelfe.org/?s=revista&veure=33>

Our journal has renewed the Seal of Excellence (2016). This seal, which is awarded by the Spanish Foundation for Science and Technology (FECYT), is a recognition to those journals that fully comply with the high quality standards set by FECYT.

The new legal deposit for our journal Ibérica is now in Madrid. It also has a Creative Commons license. Read more: <http://www.aelfe.org/?s=presentacio>

The “Enrique Alcaraz” research award

The 6th edition of the “Enrique Alcaraz” research award will be held in Mérida this year.

Five works (4 published monographic volumes and one unpublished Master thesis) are currently being evaluated by external reviewers as well as executive committee members.

Subscription fee

Starting with 2017, the subscription fee, approved at the General Assembly in Alcalá de Henares, is 40 Euros for individual members. There is also a new reduced fee (20 Euros) for retired and unemployed people. Please pass on this information also to your doctoral and master students.

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Mérida!
